I affirm and certify that the information submitted in this application is a true and accurate representation of my military service.

By submitting this application, I understand that this program is designed to assist me with building a professional network and developing critical career management skills, and that I am responsible for executing the course content effectively to secure an internship or a full-time position. I understand that this program does not guarantee me an internship or a full-time position. By submitting this application, I am committing myself to attend all weekly classes, complete all coursework, and exhibit FourBlock's core values (Act with Humility, Work to Build Trust, and Engage People Smartly). Proceeding with this application acknowledges my commitment to the above program requirements and representing FourBlock's core values.

I understand that from time to time, FourBlock and employer hosts may take photos, videos, and other media of its community for awareness purposes, without any compensation to its members. I understand that I have the right to remove myself from the frame of view if I do not wish to participate. My name and contact information will not be publicly revealed. FourBlock Foundation may share my email address to employer partners only as part of my participation in the Career Readiness Program.

The information you provide is stored securely and is accessed by FourBlock staff only as needed. It will not be shared externally in any way that can be identified with you. Documents used to confirm eligibility for programs which contain sensitive, private, and/or identifiable information will be deleted from our servers every month.

If you experience any issues when submitting this form or have questions, please contact the Admissions Team at admissions@fourblock.org
